QUARANTINE LIFTED ON THIS PART OF STATE

Fat Cattle Feeders May Ship To Markets Now—Question Of Reimbursement For Losses

County Judge James P. Bailey on Friday morning received a telegram from the government's cattle inspector that the quarantine against Lincoln county had been lifted and that fat cattle may now be shipped to market. All of the counties in Kentucky except 40 in the infected area have been released from quarantine.

On Tuesday Gov. McCreary received word from the Secretary of Agriculture stating that he had made arrangements to release from federal quarantine all Kentucky counties except the following: Kenton, Campbell, Boone, Grant, Gallatin, Carroll, Owen, Scott, Bourbon, Fayette, Jessamine, Woodford, Henry, Franklin, Trimble, Oldham, Shelby, Anderson, Washington, Nelson, Spencer, Jefferson, Ballard, Meade, Hardin, Laramie, Marion, Taylor, Green, Hart, Grayson, Breckinridge, Edmonson, Metcalfe, Barren, Allen, Warren, Logan, Simpson and Todd.

The most rigid inspection and quarantine will be kept over these counties. The infected and exposed cattle will be killed and buried wherever possible. The state will have to pay 50 per cent of the cost of the value of the cattle as appraised.

Gov. McCreary will endeavor to secure the appraised value of the cattle that must be slaughtered in this state. If the amount is reasonable, he will likely give assurance to the cattle men that they will be reimbursed.

Senator Camden has advised the governor that in his judgment it would be wise to co-operate with the Secretary of Agriculture, as suggested—that is, to assure the cattle men that they will be reimbursed for the cattle killed at 50 per cent of their appraised value. He says that this method is essential to protect the remainder of the state from the quarantine.

The Secretary of Agriculture at Washington was very firm in repudiating the suggestion of Commissioner J. W. Newman that the federal government should pay the whole value of the slaughtered cattle, according to a dispatch from Washington. He said Kentucky was the first state through a duly authorized official to suggest any plan other than the half-and-half whereby the government and state are each to supply equal portions of the cattle, redemption fund.

In a telegram to Senator Ollie James, asking the Senator to introduce a bill to force the government to redeem all, Commissioner Newman declared the question to be solely an interstate one. Secretary Houston told Senator James, who had asked him what his attitude would be toward such a bill, that this was not so. "The epidemic is just now decidedly a state, local and individual matter in Kentucky, I should think," said he. "If the federal government should guarantee Kentucky individually, all the other states would do the same and the result would be a condition of isolation that would certainly be inoperative. That, I believe, would be conceded should that unfortunate condition arise."

The Secretary told Senator James that he would be dead against such a bill, and the Senator remarked later that there was consequently no hope of procuring the legislation with the Secretary in that frame of mind.

Mr. Houston said that he considered the half-and-half plan satisfactory and that congress has heretofore approved it. The Secretary has wired Gov. McCreary that he has changed his mind about the efficacy of an extra session of the legislature on the grounds that it would take too long to accomplish the purpose desired. In this connection, the Secretary in his telegram suggested that the matter can be handled in another way.

"Governors of all states have given assurance of reimbursement by state, which has been accepted by people," he telegraphed. "Can you not do this? On second thought this seems to be absolutely the only solution."

Senator James explained that the governor could issue certificates of a promise to pay, which could be redeemed by the next legislature that assembled.

Federal inspectors have recommended a Washington's reopening of the Bourbon stockyards at Louisville, which has been closed the pens to shipments from south.

His children had him removed to an infirmary in Louisville in hopes of prolonging his life, but his weak condition soon manifested itself and he died soon after being taken there. ## CHILDREN BURN TO DEATH

Rolling Fork Farmer Loses Home and Little Ones—West End News

Hustonville, Dec. 4. Dave B. Watson, of the Rolling Fork section, eleven miles west of here in Casey county, lost his house and contents and two children, five and three years old, were burned to death. Mr. Watson was out getting milk. When they discovered the flames bursting out of their home, immediately rushed for the house. The mother tried to enter the house, but was kept back by her husband, who realized that it was impossible to enter the burning house, which was ready to fall in at any time. After the fire had burned low, the bodies of the two children were located and taken out of the burning embers. Both of the bodies were badly burned, the arms and heads being entirely separated from the bodies. Mrs. Watson is in a very serious condition, due to the burns she received while trying to enter the house after her little ones.

Frank Huns weighed up the 84 head of hogs that he had been feeding for A. W. Carpenter for the past few weeks, which weighed 86 pounds when he received them on Nov. 25th. ## MIDDLEBURG

Miss Essie Hanes has just returned from an extended visit to relatives at Somerset.

The Big Minstrels gave a performance at the college here on the night of the 21st, that was greatly enjoyed by a crowded house. The troupe is made up of local talent, and their performances are said to be well worth the price of admission.

Rev. C. T. Claunch, who attended General Association of the Baptists at Somerset, speaks in the highest terms of the Somerset people, and says that it was the opinion of all present that it was the best meeting of the kind ever held in the state. He said there were more preachers than you could shake a stick at and a large majority of them of the biggest kind of minds.

Miss Ophelia Mobley, of McKinney came down on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 22d, and organized a W. M. U. at the Baptist church. She is working for the mission cause under the supervision of Dr. W. D. Lowell, of Louisville, and has been assigned the duty of organizing the ladies of the Baptist churches of this section so that a better system of work might be inaugurated. She is said to be quite efficient in the work, and is meeting with success.

Rev. C. T. Claunch has resigned as pastor of the Baptist church here to take effect Jan. 1st. A business meeting of the church will be held Saturday, Dec. 12th, when likely a pastor for next year will be called.

Rev. Luther Young, of Adair county, preached at the Yosemite Christian church Sunday. It is understood that he is likely to be called to the pastorate of that church.

This has been some pumpkin year, and we have noticed in the Interior Journal, that several have been reported as weighing from 50 to 80 pounds which were cymbals, compared with pumpkins raised in this section. It is estimated that a thousand earlods were grown on Green River Valley from here to Danville, and farmers along the valley only gathered the largest, such as would weigh 100 pounds and up, leaving the smaller ones to rot in the fields.

The editor of the Casey County News like a spoiled child flies off the handle every time he is corrected of wrong doing. He "clouded up" last week and came back at us in his usual pettish mood because we dared to correct his report of the vote in the recent election in this county. In making the correction we did not intimate that Mr. Thomas had prevaricated, but since thinking the matter over we are persuaded that his actions were a little "shady," because three issues of his paper had gone to his readers since he reported the republican majority to have been 317 and no correction had been made and perhaps would never have been made had not we mentioned it in the columns of the Interior Journal. Mr. Thomas is publishing a newspaper and his readers are entitled to the truth, however painful it may be for him to give it.

Our informant had not examined the returns at the clerk's office when he asked us to correct the report as sent out by the News, but was guided by the reports as they came in on the night of the election, which showed a majority of 217. Now it will be seen that he only missed it 17 votes while John Henry and his paper missed it 89. Now, in conclusion, we want to say that we accept John Henry statement as to the true majority 228, and if there was any prevarication done by us, which did the biggest prevarication and why, did Mr. Thomas prevaricate at all with the figures right under his nose? We ask the readers of this article to judge for themselves.

Only Highest Quality Weed Brings Satisfactory Prices—Lincoln Growers Top Markets

A large number of Lincoln county tobacco men attended the opening sales at the two Danville warehouses Wednesday. Prices realized were considerably under those of last season, but buyers say that the quality of the weed offered has for the most part been very poor. The highest price at the People's house, was paid for a Lincoln crop, that Ken Martin, near Turnersville, who put 1,900 pounds on the market and got an average of 13 cents a pound for it. S. R. Sanders, of Hubble, sold 800 pounds at 10 1-2 cents. The highest price paid during the day at the Danville Tobacco house was 15 1-2 cents, but only good grades of tobacco are bringing figures that approach prices paid last season. At that, the prices paid at the Danville breaks were several cents higher than were paid at Lexington at the opening sales on Tuesday.

He is a hustler and will be cordially welcomed to the community. Neither L. R. Hughes nor Wm. #### Beautiful Tribute to Col. Walton

The Lexington Herald with which Col. W. P. Walton has been connected for some time as editorial writer, had the following beautiful tribute to him, the day after he announced as a candidate for the democratic nomination for Secretary of State:

Colonel W. P. Walton having announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State, this column of the Herald desires to go on record at this earliest possible moment as unalterably in favor not only of his nomination but of his election.

Not merely because of the feeling that obtains between one newspaper man and his comrade in service do we beg leave in our humble way to champion his cause, but because as a citizen his hands are clean and as an editor his life's best efforts have been dedicated to the upbuilding of his native state; because he has served his people fearlessly, ably, with clear head and single-hearted purpose, and because since the halcyon days when he received his first licking for tying the shirttails of his boyhood companions in hard knots while they were "in swimmin'" until this good hour, he has never run from a fight, though he has never started one and neither physically nor morally does he fear any man, beast or devil that walks this earth.

Money can not buy Walton. Power can not awe him. He is as tender as a child with his friends, generous with his enemies, but uncompromising to the end if he believes he is right.

Colonel Walton is a "yellow dog" Democrat and is proud of it. Assuming that the cardinal principles of his party couldn't be wrong, he never swerved in his duty to its nominees and fought wholehearted to the finish. He has suffered many defeats but has never been overwhelmed. He is loyal as a Roman soldier, no less brave, and is as true as steel.

For our honored, and in a different sense, beloved comrade the "evening lamp is lit," but still shines brightly far down the peaceful valley of the passing years; so that this belated honor will be more gratifying if it comes after service unswerving and entitled to recognition. If he wins this race, victory will be only just need of recognition for loyalty when others faltered and when loyalty was like gold.

What They Think of Him at Home

(From Harrodsburg Leader)

After the solicitations of many friends County Attorney Rodman W. Keenon has determined to make the race for Commonwealth's Attorney for this district. Mr. Keenon has made a splendid record as county attorney of Mercer county, has gained invaluable experience and developed into a brilliant and very able young lawyer. Like most Kentucky boys he is ambitious to climb the political ladder and very few young men in the State have the ability to better discern the "signs of the times" politically. The office of Commonwealth's Attorney, while not so lucrative, enables one to demonstrate his efficiency and worth and make a name for himself over an almost State-wide field. It was only after a long and thoughtful consideration that Mr. Keenon determined to enter the race and he will make a campaign that is sure to be effective. Needless to say that the Mercer county Democrats who have known and loved him, will give him an arousing vote. He requires no fulsome eulogy from us. We only wish the voters of the other three counties knew him well for they would then feel sure that he was "all wool and a yard wide" in every way. 96-1

HOW FRENCH PEOPLE CURE STOMACH TROUBLE

A household remedy of the French peasantry, consisting of pure vegetable oil, and said to possess wonderful merit in the treatment of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, has been introduced in this country by George H. May, who for twenty years has been one of the leading down town druggists of Chicago and who himself was cured by its use. So quick and effective is its action that a single dose is usually enough to bring pronounced relief in the most stubborn cases and many people who have tried it declare they never heard of anything to produce such remarkable results in so short a time. It is known as May's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and can now be had at almost any drug store. It is now sold here by Penny's Drug Store and Druggists Everywhere.

"FRECKLES"

Here Next Tuesday Night.

The next attraction at the Opera House here Tuesday night, Dec. 8th, will be "Freckles," dramatized from the popular novel by Gene Stratton-Porter, author of "The Girl of the Limberlost" and "The Harvester," with special incidental music and song numbers by Anatol Friedland, the celebrated Viennese composer, interspersed throughout the action of the play.

"Freckles," the play, is a faithful dramatization of this popular story, and follows closely the story of the book, all of the characters being reproduced in the stage version. It is said to be even wider in its appeal than was the novel which has had an enormous sale. The story of "Freckles" has to do with a deserted, friendless youth of 19 or 20, with only one hand, but a heart of gold. He tramps into Limberlost, goes to the camp of the Grand Rapids Lumber Company, and after a little vexatious obstruction, gets to close quarters with the boss, McLean. The latter soon recognizes in the boy, notwithstanding his physical handicap, the making of a faithful guardian of the company's property.

McLean becomes conscious that he has discovered the man he wants, and Freckles takes up his duties, which involve almost incessant solitary watching.

Timber thieves invade the Limberlost, and Freckles has many a ticklish job in dealing with them. His introduction into the wild life of the swamp and thicket, with its transition from initial terror to continuing study and delight, his trials, dangers, temptations, his love affair with a very charming girl, and his associations with characters designated in the story as the Bird Woman, Angel, McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, Black Jack, Wessner, the man of affairs, and others make up a story that is full of adventure, love, intrigues, tender pathos and delightful humor.

Those who have read "Freckles" will want to see it in play form, and those who have not read it will find the play one worth while. Producer A. G. Delamater has given the play magnificent scenic equipment, as there are splendid opportunities offered in presenting the picturesque scenes of the Limberlost country. A thoroughly capable company of players is promised by the management.

Corns Quit, Pains Stop, With "GETS-IT"

Quit Plasters, Salves and What-Not.

After using "GETS-IT" once you will never again have occasion for asking, "What can I do to get rid of my corns?" "GETS-IT" is the first sure, certain corn-curer ever known.

Why "Suffer With Corns? Use "GETS-IT." They'll Vanish!

If you have tried other things by the score and will now try "GETS-IT," you will realize this glorious fact: You probably are tired sticking on tape that won't stay stuck, plasters that shift themselves right onto your corn, contraptions that make a bundle of your toe and press right down on the corn. Put two drops of "GETS-IT" on that corn in two seconds. The corn is then doomed as sure as night follows day. The corn shrivels. There's no pain, no fuss. If you think this sounds too good to be true try it tonight on any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Stanford People Know How to Save It.

Many Stanford people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Stanford citizen's recommendation.

They proved to be what I needed and by the time I had finished three boxes, the pain in my back left and I felt better in every way."

A Kidney Remedy Advertisement Brought Great Happiness

I take pleasure in stating that I have used Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, that I was greatly benefited by the same and have used it in my family. I had a son when quite young he suffered from bladder or kidney affliction. I called in my physician, he attended him but did him no good. Almost by accident I noticed an advertisement about the curative properties of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I procured a bottle and gave it to him according to directions. I cured him of what we thought was almost impossible and the same with others of my family. I have such strong faith in Swamp-Root that I have never done without it in my family since the wonderful cure of my son as well as myself. I recommend it to all who suffer from kidney or bladder troubles and I am led to believe that it is one of the best medicines for the purpose for which it is used, that has ever been discovered.

This is my experience from the use of Swamp-Root. Wishing the promoters of this wonderful medicine a large sale to the suffering public, I am

Sentiment in Garrard Overwhelming for Hardin
Prominent Democrats Speak For Him

(Lancaster Record)

A representative of the Record interviewed many democrats from the various precincts of the county on Monday, county court day, as to the sentiment of the people in the race for the nomination for circuit judge between Judge Charlie Hardin and Hon. C. C. Fox. From every section came the same response in substance that "my neighborhood is for Judge Hardin." Of the number of democrats with whom we talked nine out of ten were openly for Hardin. With their consent we give the expressions of a number of the prominent democrats from the various precincts.

In the Court House precinct, A. B. Brown says: "We can not find a better judge than Charlie Hardin, and my neighborhood is for him, I shall support him."

James Clark, Sr.: "Judge Hardin is one of the most popular men in the district. He will carry this county by a big majority, I think. At least the Clarks are all for him."

Mr. Jack Bourne: "I like Judge Hardin. From the number of people I have heard talk he will get most of the votes in my country. I am for him."

In East Park Precinct Mr. Jack Adams said: "Yes, I am for Judge Hardin, and at least five out of every six men that I have heard talk are for him. He will carry this county three to one."

"Big" Jim Thompson: "All the people in my country are for Judge Hardin."

Mr. John T. Holtzclaw: Judge Hardin and myself are good friends. He has made a good officer. It is a pleasure to be in his court. I am for him and think he will be re-nominated."

Mr. Ben Kelley told us that he was interested in the race and said that "Judge Hardin will get practically all the votes in my locality."

Mr. C. S. Ballew, of Hackley: "We are all for Judge Hardin in my county. He will carry, my precinct almost unanimous."

Mr. Tom King of Lowell: "Every person I have heard talk in my neighborhood is for Judge Hardin. I am going to do what I can for him."

Will Rogers, of Paint Lick: "Everybody likes Judge Hardin and the people about Paint Lick are for him. He can count on me."

Mr. James Todd, of Paint Lick: "I have been about the courts some and am pleased with him as a Judge. I am for him. I don't know any one against him in my neighborhood."

Mr. John Davis, of Cartersville: "Judge Hardin can count on me. The democrats in my country are for Judge Hardin."

Mr. Sim Wheeler, of Spoonville: "I don't think Judge Hardin will lose half a dozen votes in Walker's School House precinct."

Mr. R. L. Burton, of Teatersville: "You may say that I am for Judge Hardin. He will get most of the votes in Buckeye."

Mr. Thompson Hill: Judge Hardin will hardly lose a vote in Buckeye precinct. I am strong for him."

N. J. Gosney, Bryantville: "Judge Hardin can always count on me. My neighbors are all for him. He will carry this county by a big majority."

Preacher George Thomson, of Bourne: "Judge Hardin is my best friend; I am interested and am going to pull for him until the polls close."

Bud Duncan, of Bourne: "They can't beat Judge Hardin, there is no opposition in my country."

Mr. Green Bowling: "You may say that I was never more interested in the majority for Judge Hardin in Garrard will be very large, I think."

Mr. Dick Barton, Bryantville: "You may say for me that I was never more interested in a candidate for office than in am for Judge Hardin and his majority in this county is going to be large."

We were given the authority to quote many others equally as prominent in the party as the above democrats, but space prevents in this issue. It is upon such expressions from leading democrats that convinces us that Judge Hardin will carry Garrard County by a large majority. (Adv. 96-1)

Harry Jacobs, the monument man, sold a large French Creek Black granite monument to W. D. Gooch, a few days ago for his father and mother. The monument will be erected in the Goshen cemetery. Mr. Jacobs also sold a nice monument of the same granite to Mrs. Peachie Vaughn Onstott, of Bryantville, for her husband, to be erected in the Lancaster cemetery.
